Events: Bourgeoisie courting victory in tennis tournament

19.08.2010 0

Anyone for tennis?

Having seen more counts than Monte Cristo, the ASCoT International Tennis Tournament is truly an exclusive invite.

The founders of ASCoT

And held on the same courts at the Monaco Country Club that host the annual ATP Monte Carlo Masters, competitors have the opportunity to walk in the footsteps of tennis champions such as Rafael Nadal and Roger Federer.

It is the second year that the ASCoT (All Sports Country Team) International Tennis Tournament has been held in Monaco, last year a team consisting of players from Scandinavia won the title, beating an Austrian team in the final.

The event begins on Friday night with a cocktail party at the Monaco Yacht Club. Play will commence on Saturday and the finals take place on Sunday, with the traditional players' dinner breaking up the two days of play on the Saturday evening.

TD

The fact that Prince Albert was among those who took part last year gives you some clue as to the class of competitor that the competition attracts. With 11 teams from all over Europe entered, the tournament, which is staged over the weekend 3rd-5th September, offers the chance to rub shoulders with the Continent's nobility.
